

daily GOOD

Your soul knows the geography of your destiny. Your soul alone has the map of your future, therefore you can trust this indirect, oblique side of yourself. --John O'Donohue

Sailing the Winds of Grace

A book fell out of a bookcase, fell all the way down the stairs -- not just any book, but a book that held a letter Mother Teresa had written to Rosalie Giffoniello six years earlier. Rosalie had a question: "Can I volunteer at one of your orphanages? Are there special needs children I could help?" Mother Teresa had written back, but Rosalie wasn't quite ready. She stuck the letter in a book. Six years later she was in bed wondering, "What should I do this summer?" That's when she heard a book fall down the stairs. It was the one that held Mother Teresa's letter: "Come to India." Giffoniello's life changed at that moment. It's an amazing story...

Be The Change:

Have you ever felt your destiny beckoning to you? What are you being called to at this time in your life?