

daily GOOD

Choose a job you love and you'll never work a day in your life.
--Confucius

When 13 year old Terik Daley began working on a science project for a homework assignment, he had no idea it would take up almost all of his free time. Now, he's a semifinalist in 2003 Discovery Channel Young Scientist Challenge. His motivation? Witnessing the aftermath of the Gujarat (India) earthquake in 2001!

Be The Change:

Turn homework or a chore into something fun and meaningful.
