

daily GOOD

Be willing to be a beginner every single moment. --Meister Eckhart

Independent studies show that children who learn piano tend to do better in school. This is attributed to the discipline, eye-hand coordination, social skills building, learning a new language (music) and the pleasure derived from making your own music.

Be The Change:

By choosing to be flexible with problems rather than irritated by them, allow creative solutions to flow through you.