

daily GOOD

"Don't do nothing because you can't do everything. Do Something. Anything." --Sasha

Bummed out that no veggie dogs were being offered on SF streets, for the sake of what she felt passionate about, Brenda Carey decided to take matters into her own hands. By giving the vendor a free trial supply of veggie dogs which she purchased with her own money, she convinced him to give them a try. Amazingly, as she was putting up the sign, a woman came and bought one!

Be The Change:

Support 'do something' people like Brenda -- if you're in San Francisco, buy a veggie dog at the corner of Market & Montgomery. Tell others. Read about more 'do-something' people: <http://www.pledgepage.org>