

daily GOOD

You can't rush fun. --Loveleen (seen posted on someone's cubicle)

Three 10-year studies concluded that emotional stress was more predictive of death from cancer and cardiovascular disease than smoking; people who were unable to manage their stress had a 40% higher death rate than non-stressed individuals.

Be The Change:

Savor the moments.