A kitten is, in the animal world, what a rosebud is in the garden. --Robert Southey

Hannah Shaw: Professional Kitten Rescuer

"Hannah Shaw's job title is "professional kitten rescuer." Known on YouTube and Instagram as the Kitten Lady, Shaw has rescued hundreds of neonatal kittens, often orphaned and unweaned, who are too small and vulnerable to be in an animal shelter. Kittens are a highly euthanized population in shelters because they require a level of care that most shelters cannot provide. That's where Shaw steps in." This NPR story shares more.
